MUJERES ACTIVAS EN LETRAS Y CAMBIO SOCIAL BYLAWS
Revised 2019-2020

PREAMBLE

Nosotras, Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social, afirmamos nuestra dedicación al trabajo de unificar nuestra actividad académica con nuestra participación y compromiso en la vida comunitaria. Nos dedicamos a sobresalir en la academia para así servir mejor a nuestras comunidades.

We, Women Active in Letters and Social Change, affirm our dedication to unifying our academic activity with our participation and commitment to our community lives. We are dedicated to excelling in academia to better serve our communities.

ARTICLE I: NAME

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social, hereinafter referred to as MALCS. Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social (MALCS) is a professional organization for self-identified Chicana, Latina, Native American / Indigenous, Afro-Latina, and Asian-Latina mujeres, trans, and gender non-conforming academics, students, and activists, herein referred to as MALCS members.

Section 2. The main office of the organization shall be located at 1404 66th Street, Berkeley, California, 94702, USA until the Executive Committee of the organization selects a different site.

ARTICLE II: GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1. The primary goal of the organization is to support MALCS members in higher education and community leadership.

To that end, the organization has five (5) objectives:

A. To recruit potential MALCS members to higher education and advanced studies and to support them in those endeavors.
B. To develop and strengthen local chapters at all levels of the educational system.
C. To encourage and promote the production and distribution of research relevant to the organization mission and goals.
D. To promote the development and institutionalization of academic programs.
E. To encourage and promote endeavors that support social justice-based knowledge production and activism.

Section 2. We pledge to acknowledge, value, and employ feminist principles and frameworks in our organizational practices.

Section 3. The formal activities of the organization include:
   A. The MALCS Summer Institute.
   B. Chicana/Latina Studies: The Journal of Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social.
   C. The website of the national organization: www.malcs.org.
   D. Local chapters and caucuses.
   E. Collaboration with national and international organizations.

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. We understand that sexual and gender identities are complex. Gender dichotomies and categories of sexuality are colonial impositions, and the legacy of that violence lives within our communities, the academy, and ourselves. Historically, women of color have been discriminated against and underrepresented in institutions of higher education. As part of our decolonial project, MALCS is open to all who support the goals and objectives of the organization as stated in Article I, and who pay appropriate membership dues.

Section 2. Membership dues are set by the Executive Committee.
   A. Membership dues will be paid annually.
   B. Membership dues entitle members:
      i. To vote.
      ii. To be eligible to present at the Summer Institute.
      iii. To receive a one-year subscription to Chicana/Latina Studies: The Journal of Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social.
      iv. To participate in member emails and web-based discussions.
Section 3. Membership shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following events:
   A. The resignation of the member.
   B. Failure to pay annual dues.
   C. If and when the Coordinating Committee determines that the member has obstructed, in a material way and to a serious degree, the goals and objectives of the organization.

Section 4. Scholars, students, and activists whose work aligns with the goals and objectives of the organization as stated in Article II may participate in plenary sessions at the Summer Institute and subscribe to Chicana/Latina Studies: The Journal of Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social.

ARTICLE IV: MEETING OF MEMBERS AND VOTING

Section 1. The national membership meeting shall be held annually during the Summer Institute.

Section 2. A special national membership meeting may be called at any time by a majority of the Coordinating Committee. Routine business may be conducted at these meetings. Any other business—particularly business with significant implications for the organization—may be discussed with recommendations and proposals forwarded to the Executive Committee for later consideration and action.

Section 3. If necessary, other national business may be conducted between Summer Institutes (or special national meetings) via secure electronic formats. The Executive Committee must ensure opportunities for membership to learn about and engage in discussion about business matters conducted in this way.

Section 4. Paid members are entitled to vote in accordance with the bylaws.
   A. Voting may be by hand, card, voice, print, or secure electronic ballot.
   B. The form of voting will be determined by the Executive Committee.
   C. Decisions require a 2/3 majority of total members voting.
   D. Proxy voting is not allowed.
ARTICLE V: CHAPTERS

Section 1. Chapters may be formed at educational institutions and/or in a region/area. Prospective chapters should email the Recording Secretary and read the information about starting a chapter on malcs.org.

Section 2. Chapters exist for the following purposes:
   A. To sponsor activities that promote the goals of the organization.
   B. To encourage and recruit membership for the national organization.

Section 3. All chapter activities must align with the mission and bylaws of the national organization.

Section 4. All chapters must be recognized by the Executive Committee and must update and maintain communication with the Recording Secretary, including contact information for chapter leadership and social media.

Section 5. Chapter meetings will be held at the discretion of each chapter.

ARTICLE VI: Chicana/Latina Studies: The Journal of Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social

Section 1. Chicana/Latina Studies: The Journal of Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social is the official journal of the organization. Chicana/Latina Studies: The Journal of Mujeres Activas en Letras y Cambio Social provides space for Chicana, Latina, Afro-Latina, Native American and Indigenous women of the Americas who have been historically marginalized. It is receptive to all scholarly methods and theoretical perspectives that examine, describe, analyze, and interpret our experiences. It publishes interdisciplinary research articles, creative writing, art, commentaries, reviews of books, performances, and conferences.

Section 2. MALCS members receive a journal subscription as part of their annual membership, which includes two issues per year.

Section 3. Nonmembers may subscribe to the journal.
ARTICLE VII: SUMMER INSTITUTE

Section 1. The Summer Institute is a dedicated time and place for membership to meet in person to foster community networking, theorize shared experiences, plan for ongoing and new initiatives, and offer expertise and encouragement to one another.

Section 2. We hold on to this space as our presence within and across the various professions is still too rare, our voices too infrequently heard, and our work still invisible within the institutions, agencies, and businesses we have entered.

Section 3. We ask our members and our supporters to honor the space we have created to support MALCS women and gender non-conforming people in higher education and community leadership.

ARTICLE VIII: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. The Executive Committee is a volunteer body that, in consultation with the national membership, functions as the decision-making body of the organization.
