

MALCS Zoom Professionalization Workshops

Navigating the Early Years of the Academy

Friday, June 12, 2020

11:00 – 12:00 PM PST

This session is offered for individuals who are new at their institution. Faculty who have navigated the early years of the academy through research, teaching, and service commitments will provide advice for charting the early years of your career. With three academics at various types of institutions we look forward to a lively and interactive discussion!

Discussants:

- Dr. Norma A. Marrun, University of Nevada, Las Vegas
Assistant Professor of Cultural Studies, International Education, and Multicultural Education, Department of Teaching and Learning
- Dr. Karen R. Roybal, Colorado College
Assistant Professor, Southwest Studies
- Dr. Sandra Ruiz, West Los Angeles College
Associate Professor of Spanish & Chicana/o/x Studies

Register at: <https://www.malcs.org>

If you have any questions about the event, please email us at membership@malcs.org